

Foundation, Training, Understanding, Implementation – the Steps to Prevention

Tony Lake, ICA Director, Australia
General Manager, International Security
Management & Crime Prevention Institute

Presentation outline

- Foundation
- Training
- Understanding
- Implementation

Foundation

- Background
- Notable people and their theories
- Evolution to newer forms
- Where are we now
- Culturally different context
 - Where was it put together
 - Is it still relevant

Who were the environment/crime thinkers?

- Jane Jacobs (1961)
 - “Death and Life of Great American Cities”
 - Early discussion of “Urban Decay” and the relationship to crime
 - Key premise – Reducing anonymity can assist in preventing residential crime
 - C. Ray Jeffery attributes Jane Jacobs work for his developing the concept of CPTED
 - Citizen Jane movie

Thank you for listening

Tony Lake, ICA Director, Australia
General Manager, International Security
Management & Crime Prevention Institute

tony.lake@ismcpi.org